OF MUSIC

VON TRAPP FAMILY MINI MUSEUM

Discover the true story of the von Trapp family – the family that inspired the world-famous film The Sound of Music. Immerse yourself in their life in Salzburg, learn why and how they fled to the USA, and hear the songs that the family choir actually sang. You will also gain exciting insights into how the family lives nowadays in Vermont. Small in size, big on experience!

MAGNIFICENT PANORAMA OVER MOUNTAINS & 7 LAKES

Escape to the Zwölferhorn and discover the breathtaking magic of mountains and lakes. Our 'Seven-Lakes View' offers a dreamy panorama over the many lakes in the Salzkammergut region. From Lake Wolfgangsee to Fuschlsee, Mondsee, Krotensee, Irrsee, Wallersee and Mattsee, the views are simply spellbinding.

The mountain peaks themselves are best explored through our Viscope. This clever remote viewer reveals the name of each peak, delivering a truly immersive experience.

In the local Salzkammergut dialect, 'Gschma' describes a state of virtually perfect comfort and satisfaction. Correspondingly, 'Gschma-Platzl' – Gschma places – are perfect spots for indulgence and relaxation. Of course, the Zwölferhorn has its very own. Come and join us in enjoying this wonderful spot in the sunshine.
